After being shot at Walter made his get-away and is still at large.

Kate Wrigley has sued her husband, Carl A. Wrigley, for divorce. She says they were married at Celina on April 10, 1910, and have two children. She says her husband has neglected her and she has had to provide for herself and children and accept aid from relatives. She charges him with adultery with a woman whom she names in her petition, as well as with divers others, while he was employed by the Big Four Railway Company, and would tell her of it and openly boast to her and her acquaintances of his conduct, so as to humilitate and disgrace her. She wants a divorce, alimony and custody of the children.

A Winter Cough.

A stubborn, annoying, depres ing cough hangs on, racks the body, weakens the lungs, and often leads to serious results. The first dose of Dr. King's New Discovery gives relief. Henry D. Sanders, of Cavendish, Vt., was threatened with consumption, after having pneumonia. He writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery ought to be in every familv: it is certainly the best of all medicines for coughs, colds or lung trouble." Good for children's coughs. Money back if not satisfied. Price 50c and $1.00. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.
